SPECIAL ELECTION SET TO NAME NEW SENATOR

PRIMARY ELECTION
SET FOR JUNE 18,
FINAL ON JULY 16

GOVERNOR DID NOT STATE
WHETHER HE WOULD BE A CANDIDATE

SECRETARY OF STATE IS PRO-CEEDING WITH PREPARA-TIONS OF BALLOTS

(By United Press)
St. Paul, May 17.—Governor J. A. O. Preus today called a special election to fill the vacancy in the United States senate caused by the death of Knute Nelson.

The primary election will be held June 18 and final election held July 16. Both fall on Monday.

The governor did not state whether he would be a candidate for the vacancy.

If the special election is ruled out after it is determined by the supreme court whether or not it is within the statutes to appoint a successor it is possible that an election may be foregone and the governor will make an appointment.

Mike Holm, secretary of state, however, was instructed to proceed immediately with preparation of ballots for the election. Candidates must file on or before May 29, according to law.

The election will fill the vacancy until March 4, 1925, when the term of the late Senator Nelson expires. The next senator will be elected in November, 1924.

The election was called by a proclamation or writ of election issued to the secretary of state, the people of Minnesota, and county auditors.

About two million ballots will have to be counted, it was estimated. The cost of the election will be about $300,000. Those living here before May's election will be eligible, the writ said. A legal voter in the last election may vote at the special election.

Three parties will be recognized in the special election: Republican, Farmer-Labor, and Democratic. All nominations will be made by party designation.

EXPLOSIONS KILLS
MANY CELEBRATING

Ensenada, Lower Calif., May 17.—Twelve persons were killed and a number injured in an explosion at Tuxpam, state of Ayarit on the west coast of Mexico, according to reports received here today.

The dispatches stated that the explosion occurred during a picnic celebration when a drunken man dropped a lighted match into a container of essence.

The fire ignited the clothes of people present. Seven were burned to death and five who leaped into the river to extinguish the flames in their clothing were swept away and drowned, the advices said.

A large crowd had attended the celebration of restoration of community lands adjacent. They were entertained with speeches and music.

CURZON AND KRASSIN CONFER ON BRITISH
10 DAY ULTIMATUM

(By United Press)
London, May 17.—Foreign Minister Curzon and Leonid Krassin, Russian envoy, had a long conference today on the subject of the British 10-day ultimatum to Russia. This is the first of a series of sessions at which they will attempt to settle questions at issue between the British and Russia.

The 10-day ultimatum served by the British on the Moscow government forms the basis of discussion. If some ground is not found on which they may get together on terms contained in it, the British-Russian trade agreement may be ruptured, and that, Krassin believes, may lead to war.

HIGGINBOTHAM TO FACE TRIAL TODAY

STATE'S ATTORNEYS ARE PRE-PARING FOR CHANGE OF VENUE MOTIONS

(By United Press)
Cross City, Fla., May 17.—Walter Higginbotham, former "whipping boss," indicted for the flogging to death of Martin Tabert, North Dakota youth, was scheduled to face trial in Dixie county superior court early today.

State's attorneys are preparing to file motions for change of venue as the case come sup for trial. The trial will be held in the Baptist church, the county having no courthouse.

Higginbotham was indicted for murder following revelations of cruelty in punishment in the convict camps of the Putnam Lumber Company which brought on an investigation. Former inmates in attendance at the camps testified Higginbotham beat young Tabert unmercifully.

Motion for a change of venue was to be presented on the grounds that the state cannot obtain an impartial trial of Higginbotham in Dixie county.

John R. Kelly, state's attorney in charge of the prosecution will support the motion with numerous affidavits. Special Attorney-General Grimson of North Dakota will assist. He was sent here by the state of North Dakota to represent Tabert's relatives.

Representatives L. E. Wade, W. B. Davis, and V. P. Chavons, county commissioner, represented Higginbotham.

HERE'S LOVE TRIANGLE WITH MANY ANGLES

New York, May 17.—It was left for Roy Cummings, acrobatic dancer and comedian, to give an entirely new twist to one of the oldest situations in the world—the love triangle.

In one home on the banks of the Hoosatic river, above Derby, Conn., Cummings is living in perfect harmony with two women, one his wife, formerly Irene Shaw, and the other, Helen Gladys, who was his first wife and dancing partner. She divorced him in 1919 and has not married again.

All insist no laws are being broken, but all three admit their arrangement has put a deep dent into conventionality. They are, they say, the best of friends.

$8,000 WORTH OF WOOLEN GOODS TAKEN

(By United Press)
Fairmount, Minn., May 17.—$8,000 worth of woollen goods was stolen from the tailor shop of Alderman A. H. McClary early today.

Burglars entered through a rear window. They are believed to be the same gang which robbed a store at Montevideo of $5,000 worth of goods night before last. Police throughout the southern half of the state were advised to be on the look out for the stolen goods.

(By United Press)
Lima, Ohio, May 17.—A dead man was at the throttle of the engine of a Lake Erie & Eastern passenger train last night when it crashed head-on with a freight train near here, injuring 13 persons, authorities believe today.

First reports following an autopsy on the body of George Bassler, 61, engineer, indicated that he died of heart trouble a few minutes before the crash.

T. B. Early, Bassler's fireman, who leaped to safety shortly before the freight and passenger crashed, said his shouted warning to Bassler was unheeded.

With an order still clutched in his right hand to stop at Oakland, Bassler swayed with the engine as it sped along at 50 miles an hour.

"I called to him that we had crossed the Oakland switch," Early said today. "He paid no attention, and the next instant we piled up the freight. 'I am certain that Bassler was dead at the throttle, how long I can't say.'"

This version was supported by Mrs. Bassler, who said her husband had complained of pains in the region of his heart before starting his run.

PRES. HARDING IN BOLD CHALLENGE

(By United Press)
Washington, May 17.—President Harding has issued the boldest and most sweeping challenge in the cause of national prohibition that has yet been made. He believes that we will have a wave of public opinion which will sweep us still further toward the goal of absolute enforcement and a bone-dry nation.

The president wrote his letter to Wesley Wait, of Newburgh, N. Y., with a full appreciation of what he was doing. He simply stated the issues involved in New York's repeal of its state enforcement act as he sees them. To Mr. Harding the question is "Shall the federal enforcement of law and the constitutional amendment adopted after fifty years of consideration and debate be endangered by the revival of the worn-out doctrine of the sovereignty of individual states?"

The difference between Mr. Harding and state's right advocates is that he regards the 18th amendment and the Volstead act as one and inseparable instead of two separate issues.

WISCONSIN WANTS
"GOOD BEER" LAW

(By United Press)
Madison, Wis., May 17.—The Wisconsin legislature wants "good beer."

The two houses concurred in favoring a resolution petitioning Congress to amend the Volstead act to permit the manufacture and sale of brewed beverages. The house passed the resolution by a vote of 44-31. The senate passed the resolution Saturday by an 18 to 3 vote.

"Good beer," according to Assemblyman Schachtjen, administration leader, "means liquor content up to 4 per cent."

'BUNK,' SAYS SPRINGER
HEIR, AS KIN DISCUSS
$500,000,000 CLAIM

Chicago, May 17.—"Bunk" is the single unlovely word which Charles E. Springer threw yesterday at the locked doors in the hotel where Springer heirs apparently discussed with bated breath and in fear of spies their plans to snatch $500,000,000 worth of real estate from under the feet of Wilmington, Del., capitalists.

An heir himself, Mr. Springer has refused to follow the lead of his relatives. If he is going to gamble at all, he declares, he prefers the races to his alleged flame of undreamt millions which has drawn so many moths.

For the appeal of $10 down—the price of a membership in the Springer Heirs, Inc.—with a chance at the fortune of a Monte Cristo, has proved a temptation to nearly 3,000 heirs throughout the country.

"All that I ask is the legal opinion of a reputable attorney, and I'll put up my $10," declared Mr. Springer. "But since they can't produce such an opinion, I'll agree with my father before me, who investigated the claim himself and called it 'bunk.'"

In 1909, so pestilential did a horde of would-be inheritors become, that the mayor, the postmaster and the city of Wilmington had to issue a pamphlet calling the Springer fortune a "myth."

Wisconsin Farmer Invited as Heir
Birchwood, Wis., May 17.—Otis Morgeson, a farmer of Washburn county, has been notified he is one of the Springer heirs in a claim to an estate valued at $500,000,000 involving part of the site of Wilmington, Del. Mr. Morgeson has gone to Chicago to consult with others.

Note—Brainerd at one time had five or six alleged heirs of the Springer estate and it was said they had joined an association to perfect their claims.

Washington, May 17.—With a warning to keep clear of European entanglements, Senator George H. Moses (rep., N. H.), recently returned from a foreign tour, reached Washington yesterday, to join the fight in the republican party on President Harding's proposal that the United States join the world court.

The senator said he had been convinced by personal contact with crowned heads and chauffeurs, prime ministers and tobacco clerks, that Europe is purely intent upon its own interests and looks upon the United States as a tree of gold dollars that needs shaking while the shaking is good.

Mr. Moses would not discuss reports that he is backing Senator Hiram Johnson (rep., Calif.) as an anti-world court candidate against President Harding for the republican nomination. He scouted the idea that the world court would be a major issue in the presidential campaign.

POSTMASTERS TO

Minneapolis, May 17.—Minneapolis will be the meeting place of the annual convention of the Tri-State Postmasters association to be conducted June 12. Two hundred postmasters are expected to attend the convention, said Mr. Easler. They will come from all parts of Minnesota, North and South Dakota.

'KING' PURNELL RULED IN BLAZE OF REGAL POMP

STORY OF LIFE IN ALLEGED 20TH CENTURY SERAGLIO IS GIVEN

EAGER "SISTERS" ALLEGED TO
HAVE ATTENDED HIS
EVERY WANT

(Copyright 1923 by United Press)
St. Joseph, Mich., May 17.—Benjamin Purnell, the "man who would be king," ruled with regal pomp and splendor in the Shiloh pales of the House of David.

The story of life in the alleged 20th century seraglio was given to the United Press by a 20-year old girl, Levina Johnson Hegner, a dancer, who said she had been a "spotter" reporting directly to the "king" on the indiscretions of the "flock." Surrounded by a harem of "virgins," the "Seventh Angel," who is being investigated by Judge Harry Dingeman, one man "grand jury," lived a life of luxurious ease and splendor in this Michigan "valley of the kings."

Food was served to the modern Sultan on plates of gold, who maintained a corps of maidens in waiting long after the abolition of the custom by Turkish rulers.

Rare liquors were poured to suit his moods and tastes and were served in glistening goblets studded with emeralds and rubies. Trained hula hula dancers furnished entertainment for the "king."

His long gray beard was combed and trimmed by a maid in waiting. His bed and bath were prepared, his clothes carefully arranged, and his every want was anticipated by a corps of eager "sisters," who vied with each other for the honor of administering to the wants of this self-styled "brother of Jesus."

The chosen Shiloh girls were arrayed in the finest of silks, while the less fortunate girls in the colony wore roughly patterned garments of antiquated style and cotton cloth not intended for royal apartments.

The king's rooms were furnished with rich tapestries and equipped with luxurious divans and rich couches. Valuable paintings graced the walls.

A thousand workers from every walk of life from teachers to peanut vendors furnished gold for the upkeep of this retinue.

Search for King Benjamin Purnell, missing ruler of the House of David, was centered in eastern Canada today.

Judge Harry Dingeman, conducting a one-man "grand jury" probe in the charges of immorality in the strange cult, received information that Benjamin had been seen near Ontario.

The quest for Purnell, characterized as the "man who would be king" and who ruled in the Shiloh palace with regal pomp is being continued as the search for additional witnesses progresses.

GIRL FOLLOWED DICTATES OF HEART

(By United Press)
Washington, May 17.—Nancy Hoyt had the courage to follow her heart even at the risk of shocking and defying the conventions of high social circles in which she lived. When she found she did not love the man to whom she was engaged she took steps to let him know that she was dissatisfied with him.

That, according to close friends of the popular debutante in Washington, was the real reason Miss Hoyt's wedding to Lieutenant Wiseman-Clarke of the British navy was indefinitely postponed yesterday within a few hours of the time set for the ceremony.

GOOD OLD 5-CENT
SMOKE MAY RETURN IS HOPE HELD OUT

Washington, May 17.—Hope was held out to the American smoker yesterday at the national tobacco-men's convention here that he again may enjoy a good 5-cent cigar. Advocating a reduction in tobacco taxes, Henry G. Wenner, of Lima, Ohio, said an effort would be made to have the next congress decrease the taxes. If relief is afforded, he added, the public will benefit in lower prices.

CLARA PHILLIPS IN PUBLIC EYE

NEW EFFORTS ARE MADE TO FIGHT HER EXTRADITION
TO UNITED STATES

(By United Press)
Tegucigalpa, Honduras, May 17.—Important new efforts will be made to clear Clara Phillips of the charge of having murdered Mrs. Alberta Meadows with a hammer, Jesse Carson, who has been posing as Clara's husband, declared here today.

Carson made this statement shortly before the Los Angeles deputies arrived to extradite Clara to California to re-enter the prison to which she had been sentenced.

He asserted that not Clara, but another of the women in the prosecutions witnesses, actually procured the hammer with which the murder was committed. The hammer was not deliberately purchased by her, as had been alleged, but came from a tool kit in her automobile. Carson has taken steps to prepare to fight the whole case out in court and endeavor to block the proposed extradition.

LOS ANGELES DEPUTIES ARRIVE AT SAN SALVADOR

San Salvador, May 17.—Under Sheriff Eugene Discalluse of Los Angeles, with his assistants left for Tegucigalpa today on an expedition to fetch away the woman declared to be Clara Phillips, the hammer murderer, who was sought here.

Discalluse plans to bring Mrs. Phillips over the Honduras border to San Salvador and there take ship to California.

No trouble is anticipated in getting her away, as he believes extradition will be honored. He is taking no chances, however, in giving her another opportunity to escape, and is constantly on the alert to thwart any attempt by her friends at rescue.

UPTON SINCLAIR SENDS CHALLENGE TO POLICE

(By United Press)
Pasadena, Cal., May 17.—Upton Sinclair, noted author, was released from jail after his arrest on a charge of "unlawful assemblage." Today he sent what was considered as an open challenge to Chief of Police Oakes.

Sinclair advised the police he would hold another meeting at which he would speak in behalf of Los Angeles harbor and marine workers, and invited Oakes to attend.

With three companions, Sinclair was arrested Tuesday night in the Los Angeles harbor district when he attempted to read a section of the federal constitution as a protest against a ban on public meetings during the longshoremen's strike.

(By United Press)
Lausanne, May 17.—Renewal of the Turko-Greek war, involving Serbia as an ally of Greece and Bulgaria as an ally of Turkey is threatened. Such a Balkan conflagration, it is feared, might precipitate another general European conflict.

The Greek delegates threatened to leave the Near East peace conference here tomorrow unless the Turks forego their claims for reparations, and at the same time the Athens government threatened to send troops across the Maritza river into territory held by the Turks.

According to a Turkish communique, two Greek submarines attempted to approach Dikela, but were forced to withdraw. The officers of the British general headquarters at Constantinople met to consider the situation. There is an unconfirmed report that British officers have been requested to cancel their social engagements.

ALIEN DRAFT ESCAPERS TO GET CITIZEN PAPERS

Washington, May 17.—Nov. 11, 1923, will be the fifth anniversary of the armistice, and on that day the bars will be let down and approximately 50,000 aliens who refused to fight for the United States in the World war, will be permitted to acquire American citizenship.

The aliens affected are those who claimed exemption from the draft on the ground that they were not of this country. Under the interpretation given by the courts to the old law, providing that aliens must prove five years of devotion to the constitution before they can become fully naturalized, the federal bureau of naturalization held that foreign born residents who claimed exemption on account of nativity, were required to wait five years after the date of the armistice before they could become citizens.

The five year deadline expires on next Armistice day. Protests are coming in from American Legion posts in many sections, but there is nothing that can be done about them.

BRIDGE IN INDUSTRIAL AREA IS DYNAMITED SHORTLY BEFORE
TRAIN REACHED POINT

Paris, May 17.—The train on which Senator Hiram Johnson was proceeding to Paris after his Ruhr tour, narrowly escaped being wrecked when 20 minutes before the train was due to arrive at the bridge over the Roer river, half way between Dusseldorf and Aix la Chappelle, was dynamited. The train was delayed two hours while the rails were relaid and the line cleared.

The stagnation of transport and the paralysis of industry throughout the Ruhr struck Senator Johnson forcibly.

Grass and dandelions were growing on the main line of the Berlin-Cologne-Paris tracks, traversing Essen and the long platforms were deserted except for a few French sentries and members of the military operating force.

calling the Springer fortune a "myth."

Wisconsin Farmer Invited as Heir
Birchwood, Wis., May 17.—Otis Mor-geson, a farmer of Washburn county, has been notified he is one of the Springer heirs in a claim to an estate valued at $500,000,000 involving part of the site of Wilmington, Del. Mr.
Morgeson has gone to Chicago to consult with others.

Note—Brainerd at one time had five or six alleged heirs of the Springer estate and it was said they had joined an association to perfect their claims.

MOSES DECLARES U. S. IS GOLDEN GLOW IN EYES OF EUROPEANS

FOREIGN NATIONS THINK AMER-ICA A TREE OF GOLDEN DOL-LARS TO BE SHAKEN

SENATOR TAKES A SWAT AT THE WORLD COURT PLAN OF
PRESIDENT HARDING

Washington, May 17.—With a warning to keep clear of European entanglements, Senator George H.
Moses (rep., N. H.), recently returned from a foreign tour, reached Washington yesterday, to join the fight in the republican party on President Harding's proposal that the United States join the world court.

The senator said he had been convinced by personal contact with crowned heads and chauffeurs, prime ministers and tobacco clerks, that Europe is purely intent upon its own interests and looks upon the United States as a tree of gold dollars that needs shaking while the shaking is good.

Mr. Moses would not discuss reports that he is backing Senator Hiram Johnson (rep., Calif.) as an antiworld court candidate against President Harding for the republican nomination. He scouted the idea that the world court would be a major issue in the presidential campaign.

ducted June 12. Two hundred postmasters are expected to attend the convention, said Mr. Essler. They will come from all parts of Minnesota, North and South Dakota.

'KING' PURNELL RULED IN BLAZE OF REGAL POMP

STORY OF LIFE IN ALLEGED 20TH CENTURY SERAGLIO IS GIVEN

HAVE ATTENDED HIS
EVERY WANT

(Copyright 1923 by United Press)
St. Joseph, Mich., May 17.—
Benjamin Purnell, the "man who would be king," ruled with regal pomp and splendor in the Shiloh pales of the House of David.

The story of life in the alleged 20th century seraglio was given to the United Press by a 20-year old girl, Levina Johnson Hegner, a dancer, who said she had been a
"spotter" reporting directly to the
"king" on the indiscretions of the "flock." Surrounded by a harem of "virgins", the "Seventh Angel," who is being investigated by Judge Harry Dingeman, one man "grand jury," lived a life of luxurious ease and splendor in this Michigan "valley of the kings."

Food was served to the modern Sultan on plates of gold, who maintained a corps of maidens in waiting long after the abolition of the custom by Turkish rulers.

Rare liquors were poured to suit his moods and tastes and were served in glistening goblets studded with emeralds and rubies. Trained hula hula dancers furnished entertainment for the "king."

His long gray beard was combed and trimmed by a maid in waiting.
His bed and bath were prepared, his clothes carefully arranged, and his every want was anticipated by a corps of eager "sisters," who vied with each other for the honor of administering to the wants of this self-styled "brother of Jesus."

The chosen Shiloh girls were arranged in the finest of silks, while the less fortunate girls in the colony were roughly patterned garments of antiquated style and cotton cloth not intended for royal apartments.

The king's rooms were furnished with rich tapestries and equipped with luxurious divans and rich couches. Valuable paintings graced the walls.

A thousand workers from every walk of life from teachers to peanut vendors furnished gold for the upkeep of this retinue.

Search for King Benjamin Pur-nell, missing ruler of the House of David, was centered in eastern Canada today.

Judge Harry Dingeman, conducting a one-man "grand jury" probe in the charges of immorality in the strange cult, received information that Benjamin had been seen near Ontario.

The quest for Purnell, characterized as the "man who would be king" and who ruled in the Shiloh palace with regal pomp is being continued as the search for additional witnesses progresses.

GIRL FOLLOWED DICTATES OF HEART

(By United Press)
Washington, May 17.—Nancy Hoyt had the courage to follow her heart even at the risk of shocking and defying the conventions of high social circles in which she lived.
When she found she did not love the man to whom she was engaged she took steps to let him know that she was dissatisfied with him.

That, according to close friends of the popular debutante in Washington, was the real reason Miss Hoyt's wedding to Lieutenant Wiseman-Clarke of the British navy was indefinitely postponed yesterday within a few hours of the time set for the ceremony.

GOOD OLD 5-CENT SMOKE MAY RETURN IS HOPE HELD OUT

Washington, May 17.—Hope was held out to the American smoker yesterday at the national tobaccomen's convention here that he again may enjoy a good 5-cent cigar. Advocating a reduction in tobacco taxes, Henry G. Wemmer, of Lima, Ohio, said an effort would be made to have the next congress decrease the taxes. If relief is afforded, he added, the public will benefit in lower prices.

CLARA PHILLIPS IN PUBLIC EYE

NEW EFFORTS ARE MADE TO FIGHT HER EXTRADITION
TO UNITED STATES

(By United Press)
Tegucigalpa, Honduras, May 17.—
Important new efforts will be made to clear Clara Phillips of the charge of having murdered Mrs. Alberta Meadows with a hammer, Jesse Carson, who has been posing as Clara's husband, declared here today.

Carson made this statement shortly before the Los Angeles deputies arrived to extradite Clara to California to re-enter the prison to which she had been sentenced.

He asserted that not Clara, but another of the women in the prosecutions witnesses, actually procured the hammer with which the murder was committed. The hammer was not deliberately purchased by her,
as had been alleged, but came from a tool kit in her automobile. Carson has taken steps to prepare to fight the whole case out in court and endeavor to block the proposed extra-diction.

LOS ANGELES DEPUTIES ARRIVE AT SAN SALVADOR

San Salvador, May 17.—Under Sheriff Eugene Discalluse of Los Angeles, with his assistants left for Tegucigalpa today on an expedition to fetch away the woman declared to be Clara Phillips, the hammer murderess, who was sought here.

Discalluse plans to bring Mrs.
Phillips over the Honduras border to San Salvador and there take ship to California.

No trouble is anticipated in getting her away, as he believes extradition will be honored. He is taking no chances, however, in giving her another opportunity to escape, and is constantly on the alert to thwart any attempt by her friends at rescue.

UPTON SINCLAIR SENDS CHALLENGE TO POLICE

(By United Press)
Pasadena, Cal., May 17.—Upton
Sinclair, noted author, was released from jail after his arrest on a charge of "unlawful assemblage." Today he sent what was considered as an open challenge to Chief of Police Oakes.

Sinclair advised the police he would hold another meeting at which he would speak in behalf of Los Angeles harbor and marine workers, and invited Oakes to attend.

With three companions, Sinclair was arrested Tuesday night in the Los Angeles harbor district when he attempted to read a section of the federal constitution as a protest against a ban on public meetings
during the longshoremen's strike.

GOVERNMENT TAKE UP SUGAR CASE

(By United Press)
Washington, May 17.—The government will ask the United States supreme court on Monday to set an early date for hearing on the appeal from the decision of the federal court in New York, denying an injunction against the New York Sugar Exchange, it was announced today.

GREEK DELEGATES THREATEN TO LEAVE LAUSANNE CON-FERENCE TODAY

(By United Press)
Lausanne, May 17.—Renewal of the Turko-Greek war, involving Serbia as an ally of Greece and Bulgaria as an ally of Turkey is threatened. Such a Balkan conflagration, is is feared, might precipitate another general European conflict.

The Greek delegates threatened to leave the Near East peace conference here tomorrow unless the Turks forego their claims for reparations, and at the same time the Athens government threatened to send troops across the Maritza river into territory held by the Turks.

According to a Turkish commuque, two Greek submarines attempted to approach Dikola, but were forced to withdraw. The officers of the British general headquarters at Constantinople met to consider the situation. There is an unconfirmed report that British officers have been requested to cancel their social engagements.

ALIEN DRAFT ESCAPERS TO GET CITIZEN PAPERS

Washington, May 17.—Nov. 11, 1923, will be the fifth anniversary of the armistice, and on that day the bars will be let down and approximately 50,000 aliens who refused to fight for the United States in the World war, will be permitted to acquire American citizenship.

The aliens affected are those who claimed exemption from the draft on the ground that they were not of this country. Under the interpretation given by the courts to the old law, providing that aliens must prove five years of devotion to the constitution before they can become fully naturalized, the federal bureau of naturalization held that foreign born residents who claimed exemption on account of nativity, were required to wait five years after the date of the armistice before they could become citizens.

The five year deadline expires on next Armistice day. Protests are coming in from American Legion posts in many sections, but there is nothing that can be done about them.

RUHR BLAST PERILS HIRAM JOHNSON

BRIDGE IN INDUSTRIAL AREA IS
DYNAMITED SHORTLY BEFORE
TRAIN REACHED POINT

Paris, May 17.—The train on which Senator Hiram Johnson was proceeding to Paris after his Ruhr tour, narrowly escaped being wrecked when 20 minutes before the train was due to arrive at the bridge over the Roer river, half way between Dusseldorf and Aix la Chappelle, was dynamited.
The train was delayed two hours while the rails were relaid and the line cleared.

The stagnation of transport and the paralysis of industry throughout the Ruhr struck Senator Johnson forcibly.

Grass and dandelions were growing on the main line of the Berlin-Cologne-Paris tracks, traversing Essen and the long platforms were deserted except for a few French sentries and members of the military operating force.

MARRIAGE REGARDED AS IN PAGAN ROME

(By United Press)
Chicago, May 11.—Marriage has come to be regarded as it was in pagan Rome, Superior Judge F. Hurley declared today.

Hurley, with Judges Thomas J. Lynch and Joseph Sabath denounced modern home life and the loose views taken of wedlock as the cause of one divorce for every five marriages in Chicago, the first three months of this year.

"Marriage is entered into merely a civil contractual relationship," Judge Hurley said.

"The family hearth is no longer regarded as a sacred institution". Against 7,505 marriages issued in Chicago during January, February and March, the three judges granted 1,588 divorces.

Many matrimonial adventures go on the rocks, the judges declared because of:

"Economic independence attained by women in business careers. Poor cooking—diminishment of the domestic instinct. Too little religion in the home life.

Inlaws. Early marriages. Jazz and liquor on the hip.

BOY SCOUTS

(By the Organizing Committee)

Why The Community Needs Scouting

1st. 10% of its population are boys.

2nd. The average American boy has 3000 hours of leisure time to spend annually away from the leadership of home, church, or school.

3rd. That leisure time must be purposely filled. Vocational training is a big part of the Boy Scout program.

4th. Scouting provides opportunity for original public service which rules in a higher conception of citizenship and patriotism.

5th. Scouting decreases juvenile delinquency and prevents crime.

6th. Scouting trains the boy for useful citizenship. A Scout is:

Trustworthy.
Loyal.
Helpful.
Friendly.
Courteous.
Kind.
Obedient.
Cheerful.
Thrifty.
Brave.
Clean.
Reverent.

Carbon Fumes Cure Consumption, Specialist

Dr. William Nolan, of Jeannette, Pa., chief of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Clinic of the Westmoreland County Hospital at Greensburg, Pa., who has just made public the result of his researches which tend to prove that the fumes of carbon are a cure for tuberculosis.

He was first led to investigate the effect of carbon on lung tissues by noticing the low death rate from tuberculosis in Pittsburgh. Smoke laden air, such as that of the steel town, he says, has a beneficial effect in tuberculosis although it increases mortality in pneumonia cases.

MARRIAGE REGARDED AS IN PAGAN ROME

(By United Press)
Chicago, May 17.—Marriage has come to be regarded as it was in pagan Rome, Superior Judge F. Hurley declared today.

Hurley, with Judges Thomas J. Lynch and Joseph Sabath denounced modern home life and the loose views taken of wedlock as the cause of one divorce for every five marriages in Chicago, the first three months of this year.

"Marriage is entered as merely a civil contractual relationship," Judge Hurley said.

"The family hearth is no longer regarded as a sacred institution."

Against 7,505 marriages issued in Chicago during January, February and March, the three judges granted 1,588 divorces.

Many matrimonial adventures go on the rocks, the judges declared because of:

"Economic independence attained by women in business careers.
Poor cooking—diminishment of the domestic instinct.
Too little religion in the home life.

Inlaws.
Early marriages.
Jazz and liquor on the hip.

BOY SCOUTS

(By the Organizing Committee)

Why The Community Needs Scouting

1st. 10% of its population are boys.
2nd. The average American boy has 3000 hours of leisure time to spend annually away from the leadership of home, church, or school.

3rd. That leisure time must be purposefully filled. Vocational training is a big part of the Boy Scout program.

4th. Scouting provides opportunity for original public service which rules in a higher conception of citizenship and patriotism.

5th. Scouting decreases juvenile delinquency and prevents crime.

6th. Scouting trains the boy for useful citizenship. A Scout is:

Trustworthy.
Loyal.
Helpful.
Friendly.
Courteous.
Kind.
Obedient.
Cheerful.
Thrifty.
Brave.
Clean.
Reverent.

Carbon Fumes Cure Consumption, Specialist

Dr. William Nolan, of Jeannette, Pa., chief of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Clinic of the Westmoreland County Hospital at Greensburg, Pa., who has just made public the result of his researches which tend to prove that the fumes of carbon are a cure for tuberculosis.

He was first led to investigate the effect of carbon on lung tissues by noticing the low death rate from tuberculosis in Pittsburgh. Smoke laden air, such as that of the steel town, he says, has a beneficial effect in tuberculosis although it increases mortality in pneumonia cases.

BRAINERD LADIES NAMED OFFICERS

BACKUS NEXT MEETING PLACE Visiting Delegates Were Well Entertained During Two Day Stay in Brainerd

Backus was chosen as the meeting place for next year, at the twenty-first annual convention of the fifteenth district W. C. T. U., which closed its session at the First Congregational church Wednesday evening.

The convention was a decided success from every point of view, and the visiting delegates expressed themselves as being well satisfied with the treatment accorded them in Brainerd and with the manner in which the business of the convention was handled.

Mrs. Frances A. Wright of Park Rapids was re-elected president of the fifteenth district at the afternoon session Wednesday. Mrs. Wright has been a very enthusiastic laborer in the work of the union, and her reelection assures its success for the coming year. The complete list of officers is as follows:

President—Mrs. Frances A. Wright, Park Rapids.

Vice President—Mrs. A. E. Thayer, Brainerd.

Secretary—Mrs. L. H. Dudgeon, Pequot.

Treasurer—Mrs. F. G. Cutler, Brainerd.

Brainerd was honored by having two of the officers elected from the local union. Mrs. Thayer, the vice president, is president of the Brainerd organization, and Mrs. Cutler succeeds as treasurer. Mrs. Dudgeon's re-election as secretary is an appreciation of her past services in this important office.

The last session of the convention on Wednesday evening was presided over by Vice President Thayer, in the absence of Mrs. Wright, who was called home in the afternoon. One of the features of this meeting was the round table discussion, one of the most interesting and helpful numbers on the two-day program. The closing business of the convention was taken care of and resolutions adopted as brought in by the committee composed of Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Helen Grondin.

The refreshment committee of the Brainerd union, headed by Mrs. J. W. Curo, served both dinner and supper Wednesday, both meals being highly complimented as among the best served at any convention.

The visiting delegates were well entertained during their two-day stay in Brainerd. On Wednesday afternoon they were given an automobile tour of the city, visiting the paper mill, shops and other points of interest. They were guests of the local union at the homes of the members. It is estimated that some forty out-of-town delegates were in attendance on Wednesday.

Resolutions Adopted
Resolutions adopted at the meeting pledged renewed and vigorous efforts to secure enforcement of the 18th amendment.

Urged upon citizens the necessity of upholding the majesty of the law. Emphasized the use of the ballot as a sacred obligation and to educate for its intelligent and conscientious exercise.

Pledged putting forth best efforts to make men and women realize that the coming national election is a critical one and that every citizen should register and vote.

Resolved that whereas the organized liquor traffic is enrolling in Washington, D. C., all who will pay $1 and give their name to counteract the Volstead act, resolved that in view of this alleged fact the W. C. T. U. are enrolling both men and women who will give $1 and their name in defense of the Volstead act.

Resolved, to refute in every way possible, the organized liquor traffic propaganda which is deceiving the American public.

Thanks were extended the trustees of the First Congregational church, the local W. C. T. U. union, those furnishing music and for all other courtesies extended the convention during its two days stay in the city. The committee on resolutions was Mrs. F. A. Knights of Pequot and Mrs. Helen Grondin of Brainerd.

REV. W. S. TRACY DIED

Latter Passed Away in Brimley,
Michigan, Was Once Resident
of Brainerd

The Lake County Chronicle of Two Harbors prints this obituary of Rev. W. S. Tracy, who at one time was a resident of Brainerd:

"Mrs. Ethel Tuttle of this city was called to the death bed of her father, Rev. W. S. Tracy, at Brimley, Michigan, April 17th. Rev. Tracy had contracted the flu and later complications set in which caused his death after an illness of only a week.

His many friends will grieve to hear of his sudden death as he was very well acquainted in this city as well as in Duluth, having visited here several times with his daughter.

Deceased was born in New York and at the time of his death had attained the age of seventy-three years. He was in charge of the Congregational church at Brimley, Mich., where he had resided the past two years, and during his residence at that place, he had made a large host of friends and was well liked by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his loss, one daughter, Mrs. Ethel Tuttle of this city and one son, A. W. Tracy of Duluth.

The funeral services were conducted at Brimley with the Masons and the District Supt. in charge. The remains were brought to Duluth for burial and were interred in the Forest Hill cemetery."

Note—Mrs. Tuttle was a daughter of Rev. Tracy's first wife. Through his second marriage Rev. Tracy had been a brother-in-law of I. U. and C. B. White of Brainerd. The second wife died some years ago.

Visiting Delegates Were Well Entertained During Two Day Stay in Brainerd

Backus was chosen as the meeting place for next year, at the twenty-first annual convention of the fifteenth district W. C. T. U., which closed its session at the First Congregational church Wednesday evening.

The convention was a decided success from every point of view, and the visiting delegates expressed themselves as being well satisfied with the treatment accorded them in Brainerd and with the manner in which the business of the convention was handled.

Mrs. Frances A. Wright of Park Rapids was re-elected president of the fifteenth district at the afternoon session Wednesday. Mrs. Wright has been a very enthusiastic laborer in the work of the union, and her reelection assures its success for the coming year. The complete list of officers is as follows:

President—Mrs. Frances A. Wright, Park Rapids.

Vice President—Mrs. A. E. Thayer, Brainerd.

Secretary—Mrs. L. H. Dudgeon, Pequot.

Treasurer—Mrs. F. G. Cutler, Brainerd.

Brainerd was honored by having two of the officers elected from the local union. Mrs. Thayer, the vice president, is president of the Brainerd organization, and Mrs. Cutler succeeds herself as treasurer. Mrs. Dudgeon's re-election as secretary is an appreciation of her past services in this important office.

The last session of the convention on Wednesday evening was presided over by Vice President Thayer, in the absence of Mrs. Wright, who was called home in the afternoon. One of the features of this meeting was the round table discussion, one of the most interesting and helpful numbers on the two-day program. The closing business of the convention was taken care of and resolutions adopted as brought in by the committee composed of Mrs. Knight and Mrs. Helen Grondin.

The refreshment committee of the Brainerd union, headed by Mrs. J. W. Curo, served both dinner and supper Wednesday, both meals being highly complimented as among the best served at any convention.

The visiting delegates were well entertained during their two-day stay in Brainerd. On Wednesday afternoon they were given an automobile tour of the city, visiting the paper mill, shops and other points of interest. They were guests of the local union at the homes of the members. It is estimated that some forty out-of-town delegates were in attendance on Wednesday.

Resolutions Adopted
Resolutions adopted at the meeting pledged renewed and vigorous efforts to secure enforcement of the 18th amendment.

Urged upon citizens the necessity of upholding the majesty of the law. Emphasized the use of the ballot as a sacred obligation and to educate for its intelligent and conscientious exercise.

Pledged putting forth best efforts to make men and women realize that the coming national election is a critical one and that every citizen should register and vote.

Resolved that whereas the organized liquor traffic is enrolling in Washington, D. C., all who will pay $1 and give their name to counteract the Volstead act, resolved that in view of this alleged fact the W. C. T. U. are enrolling both men and women who will give $1 and their name in defense of the Volstead act.

Resolved, to refute in every way possible, the organized liquor traffic propaganda which is deceiving the American public.

Thanks were extended the trustees of the First Congregational church, the local W. C. T. U. union, those furnishing music and for all other courtesies extended the convention during its two days stay in the city. The committee on resolutions was Mrs. F. A. Knights of Pequot and Mrs. Helen Grondin of Brainerd.

REV. W. S. TRACY DIED

Latter Passed Away in Brimley,
Michigan, Was Once Resident
of Brainerd

The Lake County Chronicle of Two Harbors prints this obituary of Rev. W. S. Tracy, who at one time was a resident of Brainerd:

"Mrs. Ethel Tuttle of this city was called to the death bed of her father, Rev. W. S. Tracy, at Brimley, Michigan, April 17th. Rev. Tracy had contracted the flu and later complications set in which caused his death after an illness of only a week.

His many friends will grieve to hear of his sudden death as he was very well acquainted in this city as well as in Duluth, having visited here several times with his daughter.

Deceased was born in New York and at the time of his death had attained the age of seventy-three years. He was in charge of the Congregational church at Brimley, Mich., where he had resided the past two years, and during his residence at that place, he had made a large host of friends and was well liked by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his loss, one daughter, Mrs. Ethel Tuttle of this city and one son, A. W. Tracy of Duluth.

The funeral services were conducted at Brimley with the Masons and the District Supp. in charge. The remains were brought to Duluth for burial and were interred in the Forest Hill cemetery.

Note—Mrs. Tuttle was a daughter of Rev. Tracy's first wife. Through his second marriage Rev. Tracy had been a brother-in-law of I. U. and C. B. White of Brainerd. The second wife died some years ago.

LIONS CONVENTION

Fifth District Meeting at Faribault
May 29 to be Attended by Local Members

Much interest is being taken in local Lion circles over the coming Lions convention of the Fifth District, which will be held this year at Faribault on May 29th.

Dr. W. A. Erickson, president of the local club, D. H. Fullerton and M. E. Hitch were named the official delegates at the last regular meeting and will represent Brainerd to the best of their ability.

The Fifth District is composed of Minnesota, North and South Dakota, and is made up of twenty-five Lions clubs, with over one thousand members.

Walter M. Murphy, local convention chairman, received word from Lion Tom Quinn, Mayor of Faribault, and Hobson G. Savoie of the Faribault Daily News, stating that one complete day of an all-Lion program awaits every club member in the district.

The program as announced by the convention committee is as follows:

Arnold Johnson's Orchestra

2411—"Sweet Lovin' Mama"
"Kiss Me"

Two Lifting Fox Trots

Arnold Johnson's Orchestra makes records exclusively for Brunswick, because like other noted dance orchestras they found Brunswick Records truest, clearest and most perfect in their interpretations. You'll like these two sparkling dance records. Full of bouncing rhythm and yielding melody. You'll want to dance to their rollicking syncopation.

Something new every day

You can get new Brunswick Records every day. No waiting. Go to any Brunswick dealer and ask to have the new records played for you. Brunswick Records can be played on any phonograph but they are best on The Brunswick.

The entire morning is to be taken up with business of the convention with adjournment in plenty of time for all to take part in the Lion parade, which promises to bring out many surprises in the way of unique costumes and Lion ingenuity.

At noon a wild Lion luncheon is to be held for Lions only. The entertainment is to consist of stunts which will be put on by the various clubs. Besides this, some short snappy talks will be put across.

The afternoon session will be important in every way, winding up with the election of the district governor and selection of the next convention city. A ride around the many large institutions and private schools, and other points of interest will take place after adjournment of the afternoon session.

The evening, which will be very large, very large indeed, is to commence with a banquet of both Lions and ladies. One of the very best orchestras in the Northwest has been obtained, as well as some attractive entertainment. The Minneapolis Lions club will put on their play entitled "Daniel in the Lions' Den" which became famous at Hot Springs, Ark., last year. Dancing will continue until the end of a perfect day.

The business sessions will be very important and many matters affecting every Lion will be discussed and disposed of. It is incumbent upon every club that they be properly and fully represented.

HOSPITALS FOR DISABLED MEN

THE American Legion did not get much encouragement from General Frank T. Hines, director of the Veterans' bureau, who, on his one day visit to Minneapolis, made it clear that the bureau is without funds that might be used to build a 500 bed tuberculosis hospital in Minnesota.

The Legion has gathered together a mass of facts that make an imposing picture of the failure of the bureau to provide the necessary hospitalization for those service men who were disabled during the war, or who, since the end of hostilities, have contracted tuberculosis as a result of exposure during the war or from breathing the gases that were let loose by the enemy. Many men have been found in the Northwest who need the attention that can be found only in properly equipped hospitals, and the question before the bureau is this: Are these men to be provided with hospital facilities in Minnesota or are they to be placed in hospitals elsewhere, where, according to the bureau, there are many beds that are not in use.

Director Hines said, during his visit to Minneapolis, that the Legion should not consider state lines in dealing with the matter of hospitalization but should cooperate with the bureau in placing men who need treatment in the hospitals that are prepared to receive them. There is much to be said for the director's side of this matter. If there are many beds in first class hospitals that are not in use, and the only matter is that of getting the men from the various districts to these hospitals, this should be done. If hospitals are to be built in all parts of the United States, where sentiment favoring such building is raised into an insistent demand, then much money will be spent on hospitals, the beds of which will not be used by the men for whom they are built. The United States should do all that is necessary in providing proper hospitalization for the men who were disabled in service or who have contracted tuberculosis as a result of their service, but the government is not justified in spending a great amount of money in building hospitals that are not required to meet the needs of these men.

It may be claimed that the bureau made a mistake in building a number of large hospitals in certain centers, and that it would have done better by building smaller hospitals in more centers, but what has been done cannot be undone now. The hospitals are there and they ought to be used. State boundary lines are not so tremendously important in this regard; what is important is that the men who need it be given proper attention, either within the state in which they live, or outside of the state where proper facilities have been provided. Leaders in organizations of ex-service men should not encourage a policy of waste in the Veterans' bureau, for, if they do, they cannot expect to carry the favor of the public.

It sometimes happens that it helps matters to have one person sit upon another who has broken an agreement while the third person lectures the one who is sat upon. This is the situation today in Europe. France is holding down Germany, and Germany may be more willing to listen to reason than she was before France went into the Ruhr, and while France is holding Germany down Britain is doing the lecturing. If Germany, feeling the pressure of France, will listen to Britain, there is hope that before long agreements will be made that will lead to the gradual withdrawal of French forces from the Ruhr while Germany pays what the Allies are disposed to accept.

The recent British note sent to the German government contains these words: "His Majesty's government for their part are persuaded that in her own interest Germany will see the advantage of displaying greater readiness to grapple with the realities of the case and discarding all irrelevant controversial issues will proceed to reconsider and expand their proposals in such a way as to convert them into a reasonable basis for further discussion. In such a discussion his majesty's government will at a suitable moment be ready to take part by the side of her Allies, with whom they share a practical interest in this question and which they have no intention of abandoning, as well as a desire to terminate the situation of international peril."

This note goes on to say that the British are impressed by the fact that proposals made by Germany up to this time have not been sufficiently serious or precise. Out of this passing of notes there is likely to come a proposal from Germany that will be acceptable to the Allies, and in the end it may be proved that the methods that have been used have won that towards which they were directed. As things stand at present the issue is one of international peril, from which all the nations wish to escape. Even France will be ready to accept a generous offer from the German government when, together with that offer, the Allies of the World would be ready to pledge that France will be protected in case of another attack upon her by her ancient enemy.

INTERNATIONAL RED CROSS

SENATOR CIRAOLO, president of the Italian Red Cross, is the originator of a plan that calls for an international Red Cross organization through which all cooperating nations would stand pledged to go to the relief of any nation suffering from calamity. As things are at present, nations do send relief to those who are afflicted, but they are not organized through an international council for this purpose, and their aid is a matter of spontaneous generosity and is not guaranteed before-hand.

The proposal of the president of the Italian Red Cross will be submitted to the 11th international convention of the Red Cross and to the fourth annual assembly of the League of Nations. If the proposal wins the favor of the nations the work of alleviating distress will be more equitably borne by the nations of the world. There are nations that are so located that they do not suffer from natural upheavals and storms as other nations do that are in a latitude and longitude visited by these calamities. England has not suffered in this way in centuries while Italy has passed through calamity after calamity. The nations that are fortunately located will have an opportunity of expressing their appreciation of their fortune by going to the aid of other nations that are unfortunate.

Spontaneous generosity is commendable and, flowing as it does from the sympathy that is common to humanity, it is more appealing than organized aid. But the time is passed when the gifts of those who are generous are relied upon to take care of the needs of those who are unfortunate. Organized charity has taken the place of spontaneous generosity in our cities, and the Red Cross is organized and has funds which may be used to assist those who are in need through having been overtaken by a calamity.

The movements of the age are along the line of extending organized effort, and such a proposal as that submitted by this senator will win the interest of people. All that it means is that, in the place of going to the aid of those who are the sufferers through natural calamities, when the appeal has been strong enough to arouse the generosity of a people, the nations will stand pledged to respond to a call whenever that call comes and without awaiting a sentimental appeal to the people who are to finance the relief work. It has been well described as "a sort of international mutual insurance against adverse acts of Divine Providence." If the nations all pay their premiums there will be money on hand to be expended during times of emergency.

THE FIRST DUTY OF A GOVERNMENT

WHEN President Harding took over the affairs of the United States government, he emphasized the thought that the first duty of the administration was to seek to stabilize conditions in this country, after which attention might be given to problems outside.

The public has been looking to see how well this would be done, and whatever well-advised persons may say about the administration's foreign apolicy, they are ready to admit that its promise to stabilize conditions at home has been kept. Not only do we find that the country is passing into a period of prosperity, but it is seen that instead of the deficit of $200,000,000 which was expected by the treasury department the treasury will show a surplus of $60,000,000 at the end of the fiscal year.

In the light of history it will be seen that the administration did the wise thing. America was endangered by the spirit of discontent in the masses, which was being capitalized by demagogues who, had it not been for the marked improvement of conditions would have been able to make a strong appeal to the people who were unemployed and resentful.

It is not likely that those who favor changes in taxation at the expense of business will be able to push their program through the next congress, and this has been prevented by the administration's attention to domestic affairs. Through the expected deficit being changed into a surplus, and the industry of the country becoming active, the unrest is passing and people are beginning to see that the large returns that came to manufacturers during the war have been expended in industrial developments and that excess profits must be left to those who earn them to be used in the extension of the country's manufacturing and commercial interests.

The administration, by attending to internal affairs, has, in all probability, saved America from the enactment of legislation, experimental and dangerous, that, in other conditions, would have been pushed through congress.

NATIONAL HOSPITAL DAY

WHAT Florence Nightingale said about nursing was called to the attention of the American people on May 12, which was National Hospital day. The lady with the lamp, said: "Nursing is an art, and if it be made an art, requires as exclusive a devotion, as hard a preparation as any painter's or sculptor's work; for what is having to do with dead canvas or cold marble, compared with having to do with the living body—the temple of God's spirit. It is one of the fine arts: I have almost said the finest arts."

The profession of nursing calls for a spirit of consecration to a fine task, that is appreciated by those who have known the ministry of a faithful nurse.

GERMAN women are calling upon the people to reconstruct northern France. They admit that they owe this, together with reparations, to France, and this admission counts for a great deal.

It is hard to convince either a youth or a people that their follies of today will yield a harvest tomorrow. Experience is a good teacher but the lessons she teaches are learned too late.

JUST because it looks as though something might happen in the world something will not happen. It is when nations are without apparent dangers that the unexpected happens.

IN staid, old games such as golf the English are hard to beat. He who takes this game too seriously is apt to lose. The unexcited player is the one who wins the laurels.

ABOUT "COACHING SCHOOLS"

Public Warned by Civil Service Commission as to Claims to Secure Positions

Washington, D. C., May 16—William C. Deming, newly installed president of the United States Civil Service Commission, scarcely became comfortably seated in his official chair before he found occasion to give warning against the activities of certain individuals and so-called schools making extravagant claims as to their ability to further the interests of candidates for government employment.

In a statement issued today, Mr. Deming said that there has come to his attention a blank form of contract distributed to the other party to the contract to assist the signer in securing appointment as postmaster. There is a further stipulation, that twenty dollars more is to be paid when the signer is confirmed as postmaster. The recipient agrees to represent the signer before the Post Office Department and the Civil Service Commission. The impression is given, although not expressly stated, that the person to whom the money is paid can in some way help the signer to an appointment. There is a "joker" in it in these words of the contract: "If within your power to do so." That is, if the applicant fails and complains the "coach" can say that he did his darndest.

Mr. Deming points out that all needed information concerning examinations for and appointments to postmaster positions, and positions in the classified civil service, may be secured from the Civil Service Commission or any of its duly authorized representatives, and without cost. He says further that the examination held under the Commission are open and competitive and that the order of rating and certification can not be affected by any consideration other than the evidence of qualifications gathered by the Commission through its examinations.

The Civil Service Commission does not disapprove or desire to discredit legitimate schools which give actual, bona fide instruction. Such training has a general as well as a special value, but the intention is to warn the public against misleading claims made by many so-called civil service "coaching" schools and by individuals who by inference lead applicants to believe there is need or opportunity for outside influence or assistance.

$11,000,000 PRINTERS' EARNINGS FOR MARCH

Indianapolis, May 14.—Total earnings of union printers in the United States and Canada for a month ending in March were in excess of $10,920,410, according to figures given out at headquarters of the International Typographical union here. More than $14,000,000 has been raised in the last 16 months to carry on the struggle for the 44-hour week in commercial printing shops, officials of the union said.

According to the union's statistics, 3,523 members are still drawing strike benefits after 254 names were taken from the benefit list in March. Twenty-nine shops were unionized in that month. Books of the international show that the strike fund now contains $1,120,000 more than it did when the 44-hour strike was called.

United States treasury certificates in the sum of $301,100 were purchased for the fund in addition to $260,000 of Canadian municipal bonds. Wage increases were granted to printers in 22 cities, which fact, taken with the unusually large sum of total earnings in the trade, indicates an extraordinary degree of prosperity in the industry.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur With It To Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store, all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.—Adv.

HOSPITALS FOR DISABLED MEN

THE American Legion did not get much encouragement from General Frank T. Hines, director of the Veterans' bureau, who, on his one day visit to Minneapolis, made it clear that the bureau is without funds that might be used to build a 500 bed tuberculosis hospital in Minnesota.

The Legion has gathered together a mass of facts that make an imposing picture of the failure of the bureau to provide the necessary hospitalization for those service men who were disabled during the war, or who, since the end of hostilities, have contracted tuberculosis as a result of exposure during the war or from breathing the gases that were let loose by the enemy. Many men have been found in the Northwest who need the attention that can be found only in properly equipped hospitals, and the question before the bureau is this: Are these men to be provided with hospital facilities in Minnesota or are they to be placed in hospitals elsewhere, where, according to the bureau, there are many beds that are not in use.

Director Hines said, during his visit to Minneapolis, that the Legion should not consider state lines in dealing with the matter of hospitalization but should cooperate with the bureau in placing men who need treatment in the hospitals that are prepared to receive them. There is much to be said for the director's side of this matter. If there are many beds in first class hospitals that are not in use, and the only matter is that of getting the men from the various districts to these hospitals, this should be done. If hospitals are to be built in all parts of the United States, where sentiment favoring such building is raised into an insistent demand, then much money will be spent on hospitals, the beds of which will not be used by the men for whom they are built. The United States should do all that is necessary in providing proper hospitalization for the men who were disabled in service or who have contracted tuberculosis as a result of their service, but the government is not justified in spending a great amount of money in building hospitals that are not required to meet the needs of these men.

It may be claimed that the bureau made a mistake in building a number of large hospitals in certain centers, and that it would have done better by building smaller hospitals in more centers, but what has been done cannot be undone now. The hospitals are there and they ought to be used. State boundary lines are not so tremendously important in this regard; what is important is that the men who need it be given proper attention, either within the state in which they live, or outside of the state where proper facilities have been provided. Leaders in organizations of ex-service men should not encourage a policy of waste in the Veterans' bureau, for, if they do, they cannot expect to carry the favor of the public.

It sometimes happens that it helps matters to have one person sit upon another who has broken an agreement while the third person lectures the one who is sat upon. This is the situation today in Europe. France is holding down Germany, and Germany may be more willing to listen to reason than she was before France went into the Ruhr, and while France is holding Germany down Britain is doing the lecturing. If Germany, feeling the pressure of France, will listen to Britain, there is hope that before long agreements will be made that will lead to the gradual withdrawal of French forces from the Ruhr while Germany pays what the Allies are disposed to accept.

The recent British note sent to the German government contains these words: "His Majesty's government for their part are persuaded that in her own interest Germany will see the advantage of displaying greater readiness to grapple with the realities of the case and discarding all irrelevant controversial issues will proceed to reconsider and expand their proposals in such a way as to convert them into a reasonable basis for further discussion. In such a discussion his majesty's government will at a suitable moment be ready to take part by the side of her Allies, with whom they share a practical interest in this question and which they have no intention of abandoning, as well as a desire to terminate the situation of international peril."

This note goes on to say that the British are impressed by the fact that proposals made by Germany up to this time have not been sufficiently serious or precise. Out of this passing of notes there is likely to come a proposal from Germany that will be acceptable to the Allies, and in the end it may be proved that the methods that have been used have won that towards which they were directed. As things stand at present the issue is one of international peril, from which all the nations wish to escape. Even France will be ready to accept a generous offer from the German government when, together with that offer, the Allies of the World war ought to be ready to pledge that France will be protected in case of another attack upon her by her ancient enemy.

SENATOR CIRAOLO, president of the Italian Red Cross, is the originator of a plan that calls for an international Red Cross organization through which all cooperating nations would stand pledged to go to the relief of any nation suffering from calamity. As things are at present, nations do send relief to those who are afflicted, but they are not organized through an international council for this purpose, and their aid is a matter of spontaneous generosity and is not guaranteed before-hand.

The proposal of the president of the Italian Red Cross will be submitted to the 11th international convention of the Red Cross and to the fourth annual assembly of the League of Nations. If the proposal wins the favor of the nations the work of alleviating distress will be more equitably borne by the nations of the world. There are nations that are so located that they do not suffer from natural upheavals and storms as other nations do that are in a latitude and longitude visited by these calamities. England has not suffered in this way in centuries while Italy has passed through calamity after calamity. The nations that are fortunately located will have an opportunity of expressing their appreciation of their fortune by going to the aid of other nations that are unfortunate.

Spontaneous generosity is commendable and, flowing as it does from the sympathy that is common to humanity, it is more appealing than organized aid. But the time is passed when the gifts of those who are generous are relied upon to take care of the needs of those who are unfortunate. Organized charity has taken the place of spontaneous generosity in our cities, and the Red Cross is organized and has funds which may be used to assist those who are in need through having been overtaken by a calamity.

The movements of the age are along the line of extending organized effort, and such a proposal as that submitted by this senator will win the interest of people. All that it means is that, in the place of going to the aid of those who are the sufferers through natural calamities, when the appeal has been strong enough to arouse the generosity of a people, the nations will stand pledged to respond to a call whenever that call comes and without awaiting a sentimental appeal to the people who are to finance the relief work. It has been well described as "a sort of international mutual insurance against adverse acts of Divine Providence." If the nations all pay their premiums there will be money on hand to be expended during times of emergency.

THE FIRST DUTY OF A GOVERNMENT

WHEN President Harding took over the affairs of the United States government, he emphasized the thought that the first duty of the administration was to seek to stabilize conditions in this country, after which attention might be given to problems outside.

The public has been looking to see how well this would be done, and whatever well-advised persons may say about the administration's foreign policy, they are ready to admit that its promise to stabilize conditions at home has been kept. Not only do we find that the country is passing into a period of prosperity, but it is seen that instead of the deficit of $200,000,000 which was expected by the treasury department the treasury will show a surplus of $60,000,000 at the end of the fiscal year.

In the light of history it will be seen that the administration did the wise thing. America was endangered by the spirit of discontent in the masses, which was being capitalized by demagogues who, had it not been for the marked improvement of conditions would have been able to make a strong appeal to the people who were unemployed and resentful.

It is not likely that those who favor changes in taxation at the expense of business will be able to push their program through the next congress, and this has been prevented by the administration's attention to domestic affairs. Through the expected deficit being changed into a surplus, and the industry of the country becoming active, the unrest is passing and people are beginning to see that the large returns that came to manufacturers during the war have been expended in industrial developments and that excess profits must be left to those who earn them to be used in the extension of the country's manufacturing and commercial interests.

The administration, by attending to internal affairs, has, in all probability, saved America from the enactment of legislation, experimental and dangerous, that, in other conditions, would have been pushed through congress.

NATIONAL HOSPITAL DAY

WHAT Florence Nightingale said about nursing was called to the attention of the American people on May 12, which was National Hospital day. The lady with the lamp, said: "Nursing is an art, and if it be made an art, requires as exclusive a devotion, as hard a preparation as any painter's or sculptor's work; for what is having to do with dead canvas or cold marble, compared with having to do with the living body—the temple of God's spirit. It is one of the fine arts: I have almost said the finest arts."

The profession of nursing calls for a spirit of consecration to a fine task, that is appreciated by those who have known the ministry of a faithful nurse.

ABOUT "COACHING SCHOOLS"

Public Warned by Civil Service Commission as to Claims to Secure Positions

Washington, D. C., May 16—William C. Deming, newly installed president of the United States Civil Service Commission, scarcely became comfortably seated in his official chair before he found occasion to give warning against the activities of certain individuals and so-called schools making extravagant claims as to their ability to further the interests of candidates for government employment.

In a statement issued today, Mr. Deming said that there has come to his attention a blank form of contract distributed to the other party to the contract to assist the signer in securing appointment as postmaster. There is a further stipulation that twenty dollars more is to be paid when the signer is confirmed as postmaster. The recipient agrees to represent the signer before the Post Office Department and the Civil Service Commission. The impression is given, although not expressly stated, that the person to whom the money is paid can in some way help the signer to an appointment. There is a "hooker" in it in these words of the contract: "If within your power to do so." That is, if the applicant fails and complains the "coach" can say that he did his darndest.

Mr. Deming points out that all needed information concerning examinations for and appointments to postmaster positions, and positions in the classified civil service, may be secured from the Civil Service Commission or any of its duly authorized representatives, and without cost. He says further that the examination held under the Commission are open and competitive and that the order of rating and certification can not be affected by any consideration other than the evidence of qualifications gathered by the Commission through its examinations.

The Civil Service Commission does not disapprove or desire to discredit legitimate schools which give actual, bona fide instruction. Such training has a general as well as a special value, but the intention is to warn the public against misleading claims made by many so-called civil service "coaching" schools and by individuals who by inference lead applicants to believe there is need or opportunity for outside influence or assistance.

$11,000,000 PRINTERS' EARNINGS FOR MARCH

But Uncle Joshua Whitcomb in "The Old Homestead" which comes to the Lyceum theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday wears no mustache. To present him with one would be to defy tradition.

So off came Mr. Roberts' mustache. "Never mind," said Mr. Roberts, after shaving. "I am always willing to make sacrifices to art. And after all—I can soon grow another."

Are Movie Babe's Tears Real Thing or Glycerine?

When a child weeps in the movies are the tears real or is she acting?

Well, here's the manner in which Emory Johnson, the producer, opened Little Josephine Adair's salt water ducts in the great police drama "In the Name of the Law", now packing delighted motion picture fans into the Park theatre.

Little Josephine had been presented with a beautiful doll that could close its eyes and go to sleep and again could wake up and set up an awful crying, merely by applying a bit of pressure to its tummy. It was necessary for Josephine to cry in one of the early scenes of the picture. But no amount of coaxing could make tears flow.

Meanwhile valuable daylight was being sacrificed, for photoplay making requires the brightest kind of light. So Mr. Johnson, anxious to start the weeping, stole up behind the actress and took the doll. "Oh Josie," he said. "A dog has stolen your doll and has torn it all to pieces!"

Startled, Josephine looked about her and found the doll missing. Then Josephine cried.

Very Badly Mixed

Somebody sent the editor of the Gazette a few bottles of old home brew a short time ago. On the same day he received for publication, a wedding announcement and a notice of an auction sale. Here is the result:

"Wm. Smith and Miss Luck Anderson were disposed of at public auction at my farm, one mile east of a beautiful cluster of roses of her breast, and two white calves before a background of farm implements, too numerous to mention in the presence of about seventy guests, including two milk cows, six mules and a bob sled. A young man who practiced medicine in Pennsylvania became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. This was Dr. Pierce, who finally made up his mind to place some of his medicines before the public, and moving to Buffalo, N. Y., put up what he called his "Favorite Prescription," and placed it with the druggists in every state.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has long been recognized as a tonic for diseases peculiar to womanhood. After suffering pain, feeling nervous, dizzy, weak and dragged down by weaknesses of her sex—a woman is quickly restored to health by its use. Thousands of women testify that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has entirely eradicated their distressing ailments.

More recently that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's, called An-uric (for kidneys and backache), has been successfully used by many thousands who write Dr. Pierce of the benefits received—that their backache, rheumatism, and other symptoms of uric acid deposits in joints or muscles have been completely conquered by its use.

Standing Back of Your Mousetraps

A shoe manufacturer whose store in New York City is in a rather out-of-the-way locality recently called the attention of the reading public to these familiar lines:

"If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mousetrap than his neighbor, though he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."

For many years people have beaten a path to this shoe manufacturer's door. He has proved the truth of this famous aphorism.

And where did he publish this quotation which he applies with such pride to his business?

Why, in an advertisement, to be sure—for this manufacturer is a consistent and regular advertiser, and when he has anything to say, he says it through his advertising. It may fairly be assumed that he would not look for a thriving business in the best of mouse-traps, or shoes, if people were not told about them as people expect to be told—through advertising.

Of course, people do find out which are the best mousetraps, the best shoes, the best tires, the best breakfast foods, and buy them in preference to others.

And people today are pretty well aware that when a manufacturer puts Advertising back of the thing he makes, he is telling the world that the path to his door is a broad highway.

Theodore Roberts has lost his mustache!

For many months he was permitted to retain the hirsute adornment, appearing in Paramount pictures with his upper lip fringed.

But Uncle Joshua Whitcomb in "The Old Homestead" which comes to the Lyceum theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday wears no mustache. To present him with one would be to defy tradition.

So off came Mr. Roberts' mustache. "Never mind," said Mr. Roberts, after shaving. "I am always willing to make sacrifices to art. And after all—I can soon grow another."

Are Movie Babe's Tears Real Thing or Glycerine?

When a child weeps in the movies are the tears real or is she acting?

Well, here's the manner in which Emory Johnson, the producer, opened little Josephine Adair's salt water ducts in the great police drama "In the Name of the Law", now packing delighted motion picture fans into the Park theatre.

Little Josephine had been presented with a beautiful doll that could close its eyes and go to sleep and again could wake up and set up an awful crying, merely by applying a bit of pressure to its tummy. It was necessary for Josephine to cry in one of the early scenes of the picture. But no amount of coaxing could make tears flow.

Meanwhile valuable daylight was being sacrificed, for photoplay making requires the brightest kind of light. So Mr. Johnson, anxious to start the weeping, stole up behind the actress and took the doll. "Oh Josie," he said. "A dog has stolen your doll and has torn it all to pieces!"

Startled, Josephine looked about her and found the doll missing. Then Josephine cried.

Very Badly Mixed

Somebody sent the editor of the Gazette a few bottles of old home brew a short time ago. On the same day he received for publication, a wedding announcement and a notice of an auction sale. Here is the result:

"Wm. Smith and Miss Luck Anderson were disposed of at public auction at my farm, one mile east of a beautiful cluster of roses of her breast, and two white calves before a background of farm implements, too numerous to mention in the presence of about seventy guests, including two milch cows, six mules and a bob sled. Rev. Jackson tied the nuptial knot with about two hundred feet of hay rope and the bridal couple left on a good John Deere plow for an extended trip with terms to suit the purchaser. They will be at home to their friends, with one good baby buggy and a few kitchen utensils after one year from

FIFTY YEARS AGO

A young man who practiced medicine in Pennsylvania became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. This was Dr. Pierce, who finally made up his mind to place some of his medicines before the public, and moving to Buffalo, N. Y., put up what he called his "Favorite Prescription," and placed it with the druggists in every state.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has long been recognized as a tonic for diseases peculiar to womanhood. After suffering pain, feeling nervous, dizzy, weak and dragged down by weaknesses of her sex—a woman is quickly restored to health by its use. Thousands of women testify that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has entirely eradicated their distressing ailments.

More recently that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's, called An-uric (for kidneys and backache), has been successfully used by many thousands who write Dr. Pierce of the benefits received—that their backache, rheumatism, and other symptoms of uric acid deposits in joints or muscles have been completely conquered by its use.

Standing Back of Your Mousetraps

A shoe manufacturer whose store in New York City is in a rather out-of-the-way locality recently called the attention of the reading public to these familiar lines:

"If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mousetrap than his neighbor, though he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."

For many years people have beaten a path to this shoe manufacturer's door. He has proved the truth of this famous aphorism.

And where did he publish this quotation which he applies with such pride to his business?

Why, in an advertisement, to be sure—for this manufacturer is a consistent and regular advertiser, and when he has anything to say, he says it through his advertising. It may fairly be assumed that he would not look for a thriving business in the best of mouse-traps, or shoes, if people were not told about them as people expect to be told—through advertising.

Of course, people do find out which are the best mousetraps, the best shoes, the best tires, the best breakfast foods, and buy them in preference to others.

And people today are pretty well aware that when a manufacturer puts Advertising back of the thing he makes, he is telling the world that the path to his door is a broad highway.

"CY" WILLIAMS HAVING RUNAWAY IN SWAT RACE

Chicago, May 15.—"Cy" Williams, veteran outfielder of the Philadelphia Nationals, is having a runaway race for homerun hitting honors in the major leagues. He has cracked out 13 circuit drives, the record including Sunday's games.

ELKS MAY SPONSOR BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT

At the meeting of the Little Falls Elks lodge Thursday night the newly appointed Community Welfare committee reported on a meeting held recently, at which time K. C. Davey, scout executive of St. Cloud, was present and outlined the scout movement.

Mr. Davey stated that Boy Scout work started in 1910 as a Volunteer organization but soon died for the lack of professional services.

St. Cloud has operated with a professional Scout master in charge for several years. They spend from $5,000 to $6,000 per year, which is raised by popular subscription and sponsored by the Elks. The St. Cloud organization has extended its services into nearby towns such as Foley, Watkins, Royalton, Swanville. This work has been done free of charge to cover a portion of the expense. Chief of Police Brick stated that the juvenile problems have been reduced 75 per cent in St. Cloud since the organization of the Boy Scouts. They own 55 acres on the south shore of Clearwater lake 2 1/2 miles east of Annandale and have about $2,500 improvements thereon. This camp is operated six weeks during the summer time with Mr. Davey, Scout executive in charge. A lady cook is employed and only the best is served to the boys. Each boy is entitled to two weeks at the camp and in addition to the meals he is taught swimming, first aid, woods cooking, life saving, some military training and many other interesting features. They sleep in floored tents 12x14 and the dining tent is 14x28, screened on all four sides, which also serves as an assembly hall in case of rainy weather. A charge of $10.00 is made for this service which includes all meals and training.

Uniforms are not necessary, but can be secured at about $10.50 per, including wool stockings. Leggings are not used by boys any more for the reason that they are a misfit in most cases.

Mr. Davey proposed an affiliation with the St. Cloud organization which would give Little Falls the benefit of their experience. He would spend considerable time in Little Falls organizing the boys and training scout masters. Troops could be organized in the different wards, churches or schools. The cost of the affiliation and his services would amount to about $1,000. This would include summer and winter services and the privilege of sending our boys to their Clearwater Camp.

Following the report of the committee, several members spoke in favor of the movement, and the committee was authorized by the lodge to take whatever action it deemed best in this connection.—Little Falls Daily Transcript.

KOOP BLOCK TO BE TWO STORIES

First Floor Divided in Store Rooms.
One Section Occupied by J. C.
Penney Co.

2ND FLOOR PLAN NOT KNOWN

Rebuilding of This Corner Will do
Much to Improve This Part of
Business Section

Work was started Wednesday on the Koop block, which will occupy the corner at Seventh and Laurel streets, taking the place of the building destroyed by fire on February 11th, last.

The new building, according to J. W. Koop, will be 50 by 140 feet, two stories in height, constructed entirely of brick.

The first floor will be divided into store rooms, one facing on Seventh street, which will be used by the J. C. Penney Co., fifty by ninety feet, the other on Laurel street fifty by fifty feet. The latter room has not as yet been leased.

Mr. Koop has not decided as to just the arrangements of the second floor. It may be planned as the former building, with office room, a hall, and flats.

The rebuilding of this corner will give that section of the city's business district a very good appearance. The Gruenhagen Co., has erected a new front on its store adjoining the Koop property on the north, and the Brainerd State bank's new building is diagonally across the street.

W. T. Carlson is the contractor in charge of operations on the Koop block.

SMITH SUCCEEDS ROSELL IN CITY

Rehabilitation Assistant Connected
With Veterans Training Bureau
Takes Up Work

19 MEN NOW LOCATED HERE

Will Soon be Settled on Their Respective Farms in the Brainerd District

C. J. Smith, rehabilitation assistant connected with the veterans training bureau, arrived in Brainerd Wednesday and will take the place of R. R. Rosell in looking after the interests of the veterans who are planning to locate on farms in the territory around this city.

Mr. Smith states that nineteen men have already closed deals for land close to Brainerd, and will soon be settled on their respective farms, becoming citizens of this county and doing their trading and marketing with local merchants. Others are expected to swell this total.

Special attention will be given these embryo farmers in order that their work may prove successful, and to see that they obtain the right start in their chosen profession.

Mr. Smith's relation to these veterans will be very much the same as a county agent's to the farmers he serves. The government man's territory is very much larger, however, covering a number of counties east and west of Crow Wing.

In addition to this, a competent instructor will be furnished in each locality, who will continue the education that the veterans have been getting at the University farm. The instructor for those near Brainerd has not been secured as yet, but the school board will take this matter up at an early date and have a man in the field by the time the new farmers are ready to go to work, stated Mr. Smith.

The rehabilitation assistant will make his headquarters in Brainerd, and expects to move his family to this city as soon as he can find a residence.

PIKE SEASON OPENED TUESDAY

Most of the Fishermen Journeyed to
Mille Lacs Lake Where Good
Catches Were Made

SCORES OF BOATS WERE OUT

New Laws Applying to Fishing Are Quoted for Benefit of Sports-
men

Followers of Isaac Walton were out in force Tuesday and Wednesday, the opening day of the pike season, and thousands of the finny tribe met their fate in these two days alone.

Most of the fishermen journeyed to Mille Lacs lake, where the pike bite best at this season of the year.

At the Halstead boat livery it is estimated that on Tuesday, the opening day of the season, at least one thousand pike were caught by parties who secured boats at this one point. Added to this the boats secured at other points on the lake, would bring the number of fish caught up to a very high mark.

Deputy Game Warden A. P. Cardle stated that anglers are adjusting themselves readily to the new provisions of the game law, which limits the catch of pike to ten per day. Mr. Cardle says that as soon as a party catches the limit allowed, it has been his experience that they left the lake immediately, thus showing their true sportsmanship and their willingness to comply with the law.

The various dealers in fishing tackle report a big demand for supplies, which is rather unusual for so early in the season. Prices of many lines of tackle are lower than they were last year, but the quality has been retained.

For the information of the public the following excerpt from new laws passed by the legislature this past winter may be of value:

"Wall-eyed pike and pickerel not less than 14 inches in length may be taken by angling and thereafter possessed between May 15th and March 1st, following, both inclusive. A person may take not to exceed 10 such pike or 25 pickerel in a day and may have not to exceed 20 such pike in his possession at one time."

"Wall-eyed pike, except those taken from waters which may be opened for the sale thereof by the commissioner may not be bought or sold at any time. Pickerel may be taken by spearing except during the closed season therefor."

"Sand pike or saugers, not less than 10 inches in length may be taken by angling and thereafter possessed between May 15th and March 1st following, both inclusive. A person may take not to exceed 25 such sand pike or saugers in any one day. Such sand pike or saugers may not be bought or sold at any time."

For Miss Marie Graber

A linen shower was given last night for Miss Marie Graber, bride-to-be at her home five miles Southeast of Brainerd, friends from the city taking part.

Among the friends present were Miss Clara Marohn, Miss Mabel Anderson, Miss Christine Huseby, Miss Barry, Miss Johnson, Ole Peterson, Mr. Johnson, Mrs. Tom Barry, Miss Ella Marohn and Miss Clara Severson.

A delicious luncheon was served and the evening was spent playing cards and dancing. The bride-to-be was presented with a beautiful linen table cloth.

DISTRICT COURT PROCEEDINGS

The jury in the case of Harland M. Stetson against William M. Seafeld brought in a sealed verdict in district court Thursday morning, finding for the plaintiff and assessing his damages in the sum of $648.11. Mrs. A. M. Opsahl was foreman. A stay of thirty days was ordered by the court.

This case involved open accounts owed by both parties to each other. The plaintiff and defendant are from Crosby and Ironton. Murphy & Cook were attorneys for Stetson, and D. B. McAlpine for Mr. Seafeld.

The case of M. E. and C. A. Ryan, copartners, against W. L. Isensee was tried. This case involved attorney's fees and expenses totaling $1,500 on a stated account against Mr. Isensee, a resident of Pine River.

The jurors in this case are P. S. Englund, D. P. Cashen, Mrs. A. M. Opsahl, A. J. Halseth, Mrs. J. P. Early, Clarence Grant, Mrs. J. A. Bachelder, L. H. Schwendeman, E. G. Warner, Morris Buckler, James Thomas and P. C. Borden.

The case was given to the jury about noon, and this body came in shortly after dinner for further instructions. They had not agreed on a verdict at the time of going to press.

Going to Build This Spring? Don't Skimp on the Hardware

Hardware is one of the things which make or break the appearance of a home. And the difference in cost between first class and cheap hardware is so little—compared with the total cost of a house—that it isn't worth considering.

Hinges Important

Although most folks pay but little attention to them, hinges are most important. Unless you have good ones your doors will soon sag and bind, squeak every time they're opened or closed. Stanley door hinges, made of cold rolled wrought steel will hold your doors firm and true.

Other Requisites

We have a complete line of door and sash hardware, cabinet hardware, and other building necessities. And our long experience in construction work will prove helpful to the man who is building or repairing. It is a pleasure to place this experience at your command. KOOP BLOCK TO BE TWO STORIES

First Floor Divided in Store Rooms,
One Section Occupied by J. C.
Penney Co.

2ND FLOOR PLAN NOT KNOWN

Rebuilding of This Corner Will do
Much to Improve This Part of
Business Section

Work was started Wednesday on the Koop block, which will occupy the corner at Seventh and Laurel streets, taking the place of the building destroyed by fire on February 11th, last.

The new building, according to J. W. Koop, will be 50 by 140 feet, two stories in height, constructed entirely of brick.

The first floor will be divided into store rooms, one facing on Seventh street, which will be used by the J. C. Penney Co., fifty by ninety feet; the other on Laurel street fifty by fifty feet. The latter room has not as yet been leased.

Mr. Koop has not decided as to just the arrangements of the second floor. It may be planned as the former building, with office room, a hall, and flats.

The rebuilding of this corner will give that section of the city's business district a very good appearance. The Gruenhagen Co., has erected a new front on its store adjoining the Koop property on the north, and the Brainerd State bank's new building is diagonally across the street.

W. T. Carlson is the contractor in charge of operations on the Koop block.

"IF I HAD A MILLION"; KIDS TELL WHAT TO DO

The contest editor of the "What I'd Do With a Million if I Had It," series inaugurated by the New Park theatre, has received this letter from George King, 621 North Ninth street:

King is under 8, confines his letter to the limit of 50 words.

The evening was spent informally with games and music. The guests numbered fifty. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the young couple, which was an expression of the esteem in which they are held. At the close of the evening a delicious luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Engstrom were united in marriage Saturday, May 12, in Minneapolis. The bride was formerly Miss Louise Gartner of this city. The young couple motored from the cities and continued their journey Tuesday morning to Grand Forks, North Dakota, their future home.

ROSELL IN CITY

Rehabilitation Assistant Connected

Takes Up Work

19 MEN NOW LOCATED HERE

Will Soon be Settled on Their Respective Farms in the Brainerd District

C. J. Smith, rehabilitation assistant connected with the veterans training bureau, arrived in Brainerd Wednesday and will take the place of R. R. Rosell in looking after the interests of the veterans who are planning to locate on farms in the territory around this city.

Mr. Smith states that nineteen men have already closed deals for land close to Brainerd, and will soon be settled on their respective farms, becoming citizens of this county and doing their trading and marketing with local merchants. Others are expected to swell this total.

Special attention will be given these embryo farmers in order that their work may prove successful, and to see that they obtain the right start in their chosen profession.

Mr. Smith's relation to these veterans will be very much the same as a county agent's to the farmers he serves. The government man's territory is very much larger, however, covering a number of counties east and west of Crow Wing.

In addition to this, a competent instructor will be furnished in each locality, who will continue the education that the veterans have been getting at the University farm. The instructor for those near Brainerd has not been secured as yet, but the school board will take this matter up at an early date and have a man in the field by the time the new farmers are ready to go to work, stated Mr. Smith.

The rehabilitation assistant will make his headquarters in Brainerd, and expects to move his family to this city as soon as he can find a residence.

PIKE SEASON OPENED TUESDAY

Most of the Fishermen Journeyed to
Mille Lacs Lake Where Good
Catches Were Made

SCORES OF BOATS WERE OUT

New Laws Applying to Fishing Are Quoted for Benefit of Sports-
men

Followers of Isaac Walton were out in force Tuesday and Wednesday, the opening day of the pike season, and thousands of the finny tribe met their fate in these two days alone.

Most of the fishermen journeyed to Mille Lacs lake, where the pike bite best at this season of the year.

At the Halstead boat livery it is estimated that on Tuesday, the opening day of the season, at least one thousand pike were caught by parties who secured boats at this one point. Added to this the boats secured at other points on the lake, would bring the number of fish caught up to a very high mark.

Deputy Game Warden A. P. Cardle stated that anglers are adjusting themselves readily to the new provisions of the game law, which limits the catch of pike to ten per day. Mr. Cardle says that as soon as a party catches the limit allowed, it has been his experience that they left the lake immediately, thus showing their true sportsmanship and their willingness to comply with the law.

The various dealers in fishing tackle report a big demand for supplies, which is rather unusual for so early in the season. Prices of many lines of tackle are lower than they were last year, but the quality has been retained.

For the information of the public the following excerpt from new laws passed by the legislature this past winter may be of value:

"Wall-eyed pike and pickerel not less than 14 inches in length may be taken by angling and thereafter possessed between May 15th and March 1st, following, both inclusive. A person may take not to exceed 10 such pike or 25 pickerel in a day and may have not to exceed 20 such pike in his possession at one time."

"Wall-eyed pike, except those taken from waters which may be opened for the sale thereof by the commissioner may not be bought or sold at any time. Pickerel may be taken by spearing except during the closed season thereafter."

"Sand pike or saugers, not less than 10 inches in length may be taken by angling and thereafter possessed between May 15th and March 1st following, both inclusive. A person may take not to exceed 25 such sand pike or saugers in any one day. Such sand pike or saugers may not be bought or sold at any time."

For Miss Marie Graber

A linen shower was given last night for Miss Marie Graber, bride-to-be at her home five miles Southeast of Brainerd, friends from the city taking part.

Among the friends present were Miss Clara Marohn, Miss Mabel Anderson, Miss Christine Huseby, Miss Barry, Miss Johnson, Ole Peterson, Mr. Johnson, Mrs. Tom Barry, Miss Ella Marohn and Miss Clara Severson.

A delicious luncheon was served and the evening was spent playing cards and dancing. The bride-to-be was presented with a beautiful linen table cloth.

This case involved open accounts owed by both parties to each other. The plaintiff and defendant are from Crosby and Ironton. Murphy & Cook were attorneys for Stetson, and D. B. McAlpine for Mr. Seafeld.

The case of M. E. and C. A. Ryan, copartners, against W. L. Isensee was tried. This case involved attorney's fees and expenses totalling $1,500 on a stated account against Mr. Isensee, a resident of Pine River.

Entries for the meet will close on May 22. According to the authorities in charge, three men may be entered in any event and two may compete from each school. Aurora, has entered Dufelovitch, a star javelin man. Thomas, the twin city athlete who defeated him by a narrow margin in a recent meet, will no doubt be entered in Group T.

Gold medals will be awarded for first place, silver for second, and bronze for third and fourth. Silver loving cups will go to the winning relay team in each group. As a special feature of this year's meet, railroad fare will be refunded to any athlete who places in any event.

The Carlton track is being worked daily and will be in excellent shape for the high school tracksters. Good time is expected on the fast 220 yard straightway.

Entertainment is being arranged for the visiting athletes which will culminate in a banquet at Sayles-Hill gymnasium in the evening, at which time the medals and loving cups will be awarded.

FULTON AND JOHNSON BARRED IN GOTHAM

New York, May 17.—Floyd Johnson, heavyweight boxer, knocked out by Jess Willard last Saturday, and Fred Fulton, who lost on a foul to Jack Rensault, Canadian heavyweight on the same bill, and their managers, Charley Cook and Jimmy Johnston, have been suspended indefinitely by the New York boxing commission, it was learned last night.

The action was taken in conjunction with the suspension of the men by the Massachusetts boxing commission for the failure of Fulton and Johnson to box before the Arena A. C. of Boston on April 16 last. The suspensions, it was said, would remain in force in New York state until the ban against the boxers and their managers has been lifted by the Massachusetts commission.

Johnson was served with an attachment Saturday on $5,000 of the $24,000 he received for meeting Willard by the Boston club, which declared it had been damaged to that extent by his failure to meet Fulton.

Cook, it was said, expected to leave for Boston with a certified check for $5,000 to make a plea to the Massachusetts commission for reinstatement.

Montana Attorney General O. K.'s July 4th Title Bout

Helena, May 17.—The state land department has executed a lease upon 400 acres of state lands lying directly southeast of the townsite of Shelby, upon which will be erected the arena for the Dempsey-Gibbons fight on July 4.

The land is rented by the state for a period of one year, from May 11, 1923, for grazing purposes, the rental price being $59, the lease shows.

Discounting the chance of any interference with the fight, Attorney General Rankin said:

"The Montana fight law is as long as it is broad. It specifically legalizes 15 round contests with six ounce gloves in a ring which must measure not less than 18x24 feet. There are other very rigid provisions, but the law is as specific in granting the right to hold these contests in Montana under restrictions as it is to prohibit contests which do not comply with the restrictions. Consequently, as Attorney General I cannot interfere with the Dempsey-Gibbons contest if they conduct it according to law."

$75,000 BEAUTY HAS HIS TROUBLES

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, May 17.—Jimmy O'Connell, the $75,000 outfielder has had heaps of trouble getting started with the New York Giants.

The prize youngster has psychology working on him and it's a tough ailment for a young ball player to overcome.

His price tag of $75,000 imposed a tremendous handicap, the commission of stepping from minor league stardom into a regular position on a world's champion club was an additional load, but the toughest assignment he was put up against was the job of keeping the fans with him when he displaced the most popular player on the Giants.

Even though he started out to hit the size of his hat and fielded hardly above the ordinary, New York fans were more than fair to young O'Connell and they treated him generously.

Old sentiment for Casey Stengel, the most popular player on the Giant club, whom O'Connell displaced as a regular, was shown noisily, however, whenever Casey appeared in the field or took active part in the game, and O'Connell apparently misunderstood the demonstration and took it for a personal reproach.

John McGraw knows the nature of O'Connell's ailment and he is using a sort of serum remedy and treating a psychological disease with psychology.

From the start, the Giant leader has let Jimmy alone and by word and action he is trying to convey to his young star that he is getting along well and will make good.

O'Connell is not a natural outfielder and probably he never will be. But he is a natural hitter, and as soon as he acquires the standpoint of the veteran player that a game is only a game and that a crowd is just there to occupy seats he may live up to all that was expected of him.

When all records were broken last year by a flood of almost a million dollars from major league treasuries for minor league players, close followers of baseball predicted the demise of an orgy of spending and held out the opinion that the days of high-priced ball players had passed.

On the contrary, early developments this season seem to indicate that the major league magnates will have to pay even more money next year for the privilege of picking the prize plants from the bushes.

Jack Dunn, who sold Jack Bentley to the New York Giants for $65,000 last winter, laughed at Charley Ebbets when the Brooklyn owner offered $100,000 for his shortstop, Joe Foley. Everyone laughed, however, when Ebbets showed an inclination to spend more than a quarter.

$75,000 BEAUTY HAS HIS TROUBLES

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, May 17.—Jimmy O'Connell, the $75,000 outfielder has had heaps of trouble getting started with the New York Giants.

The prize youngster has psychology working on him and it's a tough ailment for a young ball player to overcome.

His price tag of $75,000 imposed a tremendous handicap, the commission of stepping from minor league stardom into a regular position on a world's champion club was an additional load, but the toughest assignment he was put up against was the job of keeping the fans with him when he displaced the most popular player on the Giants.

Even though he started out to hit the size of his hat and fielded hardly above the ordinary, New York fans were more than fair to young O'Connell and they treated him generously.

Old sentiment for Casey Stengel, the most popular player on the Giant club, whom O'Connell displaced as a regular, was shown noisily, however, whenever Casey appeared in the field or took active part in the game, and O'Connell apparently misunderstood the demonstration and took it for a personal reproach.

John McGraw knows the nature of O'Connell's ailment and he is using a sort of serum remedy and treating a psychological disease with psychology.

From the start, the Giant leader has let Jimmy alone and by word and action he is trying to convey to his young star that he is getting along well and will make good.

O'Connell is not a natural outfielder and probably he never will be. But he is a natural hitter, and as soon as he acquires the standpoint of the veteran player that a game is only a game and that a crowd is just there to occupy seats he may live up to all that was expected of him.

When all records were broken last year by a flood of almost a million dollars from major league treasuries for minor league players, close followers of baseball predicted the demise of an orgy of spending and held out the opinion that the days of high-priced ball players had passed.

On the contrary, early developments this season seem to indicate that the major league magnates will have to pay even more money next year for the privilege of picking the prize plants from the bushes.

Jack Dunn, who sold Jack Bentley to the New York Giants for $65,000 last winter, laughed at Charley Ebbets when the Brooklyn owner offered $100,000 for his shortstop, Joe Boley. Everyone laughed, however, when Ebbets showed an inclination to spend more than a quarter.

Walter Hagen is Married

Walter Hagen, probably America's greatest professional golfer and holder of the British open title, was married to Mrs. Edna C. Strauss, with whom he is pictured above. The ceremony was performed just before Hagen and other professional golfers sailed for England to participate in the British championships.

LUIS FIRPO SLATED TO BOX AT GRAND RAPIDS

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 16.—Announcement was made today by a local athletic club that Luis Firpo, heavyweight boxer, has been signed to box 10 rounds here May 22.

Selection of his opponent is said to rest between Harry Foley of Hot Springs, Ark., Homer Smith of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Hugh Walker of Kansas City, Mo.

LEONARD AND WALKER MATCH CONSIDERED

Chicago, May 17.—A 10 round contest between champions of two divisions—Benny Leonard, lightweight boss, and Mickey Walker, welterweight titleholder—probably will be staged here next month, it was announced. The promoters plan to hold the match in one of the major league parks.

TRICK BILLIARDIST TO GIVE EXHIBITION

R. C. Downes of Detroit, Mich., billiardist, will give an exhibition this evening at 8 o'clock at the Koukis Brothers billiard parlor on Front st. He will show a series of trick and fancy shots.

Downes is rated with Hueston and Weston in this line of play and has won the favorable comment of sport writers in every city where he has played.

On June 20, 1920, Downes left Detroit by auto, having planned to tour the country to give exhibitions and play in every town of 5,000 or more people. To date he has covered 16,000 miles of his contemplated 21,000 mile journey. He will finish his trip at Seattle and plans to arrive there by Jan. 1 of next year. He will go from here to Duluth and then into Canada. No admission is charged at his performances.

FULTON AND JOHNSON BARRED IN GOTHAM

New York, May 17.—Floyd Johnson, heavyweight boxer, knocked out by Jess Willard last Saturday, and Fred Fulton, who lost on a foul to Jack Renault, Canadian heavyweight on the same bill, and their managers, Charley Cook and Jimmy Johnston, have been suspended indefinitely by the New York boxing commission, it was learned last night.

The action was taken in conjunction with the suspension of the men by the Massachusetts boxing commission for the failure of Fulton and Johnson to box before the Arena A. C. of Boston on April 16 last. The suspensions, it was said, would remain in force in New York state until the ban against the boxers and their managers has been lifted by the Massachusetts commission.

Johnson was served with an attachment Saturday on $5,000 of the $24,000 he received for meeting Willard by the Boston club, which declared it had been damaged to that extent by his failure to meet Fulton.

Cook, it was said, expected to leave for Boston with a certified check for $5,000 to make a plea to the Massachusetts commission for reinstatement.

Montana Attorney General O. K.'s July 4th Title Bout

Helena, May 17.—The state land department has executed a lease upon 400 acres of state lands lying directly southeast of the townsite of Shelby, upon which will be erected the arena for the Dempsey-Gibbons fight on July 4.

The land is rented by the state for a period of one year, from May 11, 1923, for grazing purposes, the rental price being $59, the lease shows.

Discontinuing the chance of any interference with the fight, Attorney General Rankin said: "The Montana fight law is as long as it is broad. It specifically legalizes 15 round contests with six ounce gloves in a ring which must measure not less than 18x24 feet. There are other very rigid provisions, but the law is as specific in granting the right to hold these contests in Montana under restrictions as it is to prohibit contests which do not comply with the restrictions. Consequently, as Attorney General I cannot interfere with the Dempsey-Gibbons contest if they conduct it according to law."

Nothing to brag Of.
An advertisement reads: "The best ants are grown in America." True enough, but why brag about 'em?

HUGE RADIO SENDING STATION BROADCAST SHELBY FIGHT NEWS

(By United Press)
Shelby, Mont., May 17.—Plans were completed today for the installation of a huge radio sending station here to be used in broadcasting news of the fight on July 4 between Jack Dempsey and Tommy Gibbons.

The set will be used for a week before the fight, and Dempsey and Gibbons will tell what they are doing, how they feel, and managers and promoters will add their stories, thus contributing to spread publicity regarding the big bout.

CARLETON TRACK MEET TO BE HELD ON MAY 26

Northfield, Minn., May 16.—With the Carlton Interscholastic Track Meet less than two weeks distant, preparations are being made to handle one of the largest aggregations of high school athletes that ever assembled on Laird field. Last year's meet put in action some 250 athletes, and more than this number are expected to face the starter's gun on May 26.

Entries for the meet will close on May 22. According to the authorities in charge, three men may be entered in any event and two may compete from each school. Aurora, has entered Duclovitch, a star javelin man. Thomas, the twin city athlete who defeated him by a narrow margin in a recent meet, will no doubt be entered in Group T.

As in the past, twin city schools will compete in Group T; other school in Group I. West high of Minneapolis and Winona were last years winners in their respective classes. Gold medals will be awarded for first place, silver for second, and bronze for third and fourth. Silver loving cups will go to the winning relay team in each group. As a special feature of this year's meet, railroad fare will be refunded to any athlete who places in any event.

The Carlton track is being worked daily and will be in excellent shape for the high school tracksters. Good time is expected on the fast 220 yard straightaway.

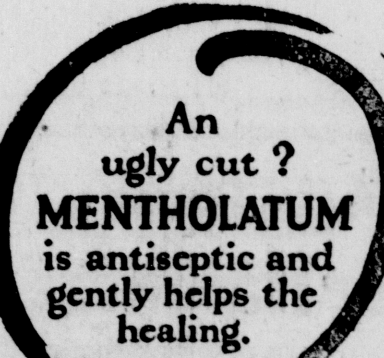

Entertainment is being arranged for the visiting athletes which will culminate in a banquet at Sayles-Hill gymnasium in the evening, at which time the medals and loving cups will be awarded.

Elaborate Tattooing.
A feature of the Maoriland is tattooing. Some of the extraordinary facial features take six years to complete.
